SIGNIFICANCE OF AGRORUS

AGRORUS is coeval of contemporary Russia, dated 1991

AGRORUS is the only agricultural exhibition and fair in Russia that got both signs: UFI and Russian Union of Exhibitions and Fairs (RUEF).

«Today in Russia farmers are producing 13 percent of agricultural production. Last 5 years, against the background of the overall growth of the industry, this share has increased by more than a third»

Vladimir Putin -
President of the Russian Federation

«Over the past years AGRORUS has established itself as a significant platform for demonstrating the capabilities of small businesses, sharing experiences and discussing prospects for the development of agriculture»

Dmitry Patrushev - Minister of Agriculture of the Russian Federation

«St. Petersburg "Agrorus" has become one of the most important sites at the federal level for the agricultural industry, the leading agricultural event in the country. The exhibition demonstrates the achievements of Russian and foreign enterprises, innovative technologies, helps manufacturers and consumers find each other.»

Alexander Beglov, the Governor of St. Petersburg
